13 About the nominated directors

19 Board committees

BUSINESS OF THE MEETING

You will vote on the following items of business.

We need a quorum for the meeting to proceed. That means at least 10% of the total shares outstanding must be represented by two or more shareholders attending the meeting in their own capacity or by proxy. If you submit a properly executed form of proxy or vote by telephone or the Internet, you will be considered part of the quorum. In addition, under our governing statute, the Canada Business Corporations Act (CBCA), and our bylaws, shareholders who participate in and/or vote at the meeting by electronic or other virtual communication facilities made available by Toromont, are deemed to be present at the meeting for all purposes, including for purposes of establishing quorum.

1. Receive our financial statements (www.toromont.com)

The audited consolidated financial statements of Toromont for the year ended December 31, 2024, and the auditor's report will be presented at the meeting.

These audited consolidated financial statements form part of our 2024 annual report, available on our website (www.toromont.com) and on SEDAR+ (www.sedarplus.ca). You can also receive a copy by contacting our Corporate Secretary at Toromont Industries Ltd., 3131 Highway 7 West, P.O. Box 5511, Concord, Ontario L4K 1B7.

2. Elect directors (see page 13)

Our articles state that we must have between six and 12 directors on our Board of Directors. This year, management has proposed that ten directors be elected to the Board for a term of one year. You will vote on each of the ten nominated directors.

Each nominated director is qualified and experienced and has expressed their willingness to serve on our Board for the upcoming year. You can read more about the proposed Board on page 13, each nominee in the director profiles beginning on page 14, and the Board committees they served on in 2024 on page 19. Our majority voting practices for directors are discussed on page 21.

Unless instructed in the form of proxy to the contrary, the management proxy nominees named in the enclosed form of proxy intend to vote FOR each of management's nominated directors.

3. Appoint the auditor

The Board recommends appointing Ernst & Young LLP as our auditor to hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders and authorizing the directors to set their fees for the year. One or more representatives of Ernst & Young LLP will be present at the meeting, and will have an opportunity to make a statement and respond to any questions.

The Audit Committee oversees and monitors the qualifications, independence, and performance of Toromont's external auditor. A formal review of the external auditors is completed every year and a more comprehensive review every five years. These reviews are based on recommendations by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada and the Canadian Public Accountability Board (CPAB) to assist Audit Committees in their oversight duties. A comprehensive review was completed in 2023 and the Audit Committee determined that it was satisfied with the independence of, and the audit quality provided by, Ernst & Young LLP. The next comprehensive review is scheduled for 2028.

We maintain independence from the external auditors through the Audit Committee's oversight, a robust regulatory framework, and Ernst & Young LLP's own internal independence procedures. The independent auditor reports to and is ultimately accountable to the Board and the Audit Committee as representatives of Toromont's shareholders.

The Audit Committee's mandate sets out its responsibilities for overseeing the external auditors, which include (among other things):

- reviewing auditor independence from both management and the company
- overseeing the work of the auditor
- approving annual audit fees, and pre-approving any non-audit services and associated fees
- evaluating the performance of the auditors and recommending their replacement if necessary.

The Board recommends you vote FOR each nominated director.

The Board recommends you vote FOR appointing Ernst & Young LLP as our auditor for the 2025 fiscal year at fees set by the Board.

The Audit Committee considers, among other things:

- the objectivity and professional skepticism of the auditors
- the quality and experience of their engagement team, including expertise in and knowledge of industries in which we operate or serve
- external reports on audit quality (CPAB inspection reports)
- an annual assessment of the overall quality of the service provided (along with a comprehensive review every five years), including considering trends observed in the annual assessment relative to the prior five-year comprehensive review
- the quarterly review of audit quality indicators.

Ernst & Young LLP have served as our auditors since 1996. The Audit Committee evaluates the benefits and risks of having a long-tenured auditor and the controls and processes that ensure their independence, such as mandatory partner rotations at least every seven years. The Audit Committee oversees the selection and rotation of the lead partner. A new lead audit partner was appointed following the completion of our 2023 fiscal audit. The Audit Committee believes there are benefits to having long-tenured auditors, including quality of work and efficiencies because of the auditors' institutional knowledge of our business, accounting policies and practices and internal controls. The Audit Committee therefore considers the benefits of maintaining Ernst & Young LLP as our auditors to exceed any potential audit quality risks resulting from their tenure. The Audit Committee will continue to reassess these benefits and risks every year as well as its approach and governance in this area.

The table below shows the fees paid to Ernst & Young LLP or accrued by Toromont for the 2023 and 2024 fiscal years.

Audit fees
Includes the audit of our financial statements, report on internal controls, reviews of quarterly reports and regulatory filings	$1,366,550	$1,371,000
Audit-related fees
Includes consultation related to financial accounting and reporting standards not classified as audit, due diligence in connection with proposed or consummated transactions and assurance services to report on internal controls for third parties	$45,000	$61,000
Tax fees
Includes tax compliance, tax planning and tax advice services	$8,000	$8,000
Total	$1,419,550	$1,440,000

Unless instructed in the form of proxy to the contrary, the management proxy nominees named in the enclosed form of proxy intend to vote FOR the appointment of Ernst & Young LLP as our auditor and authorizing the directors to set their fees for the year.

4. Vote on our approach to executive pay (starting on page 35)

We hold an annual 'say on pay' advisory vote to give shareholders an opportunity to express their views on our approach to executive compensation.

Our goal is to maximize value for our stakeholders, and our compensation strategy and program are designed to support this goal. Our compensation strategy has four elements:

1. attract, motivate and retain superior executive talent by making sure compensation is competitive
2. motivate performance by linking incentive compensation to specific business performance goals
3. recognize performance and potential by maintaining a high proportion of pay at risk
4. encourage commitment to Toromont and link compensation with long-term shareholder interests by including equity-based incentives as part of executive compensation.

Please vote on the following advisory resolution:

"RESOLVED THAT, on an advisory basis and not to diminish the role and responsibilities of the Board of Directors of Toromont, the shareholders accept the approach to executive compensation as disclosed in our management information circular delivered in advance of our 2025 annual meeting of shareholders."

The Board recommends you vote FOR our advisory resolution on our approach to executive compensation.

This is an advisory vote, so the results will not be binding on the Board. The Board and the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee will review the outcome of the vote as part of their review of executive compensation. You can read more about executive compensation at Toromont beginning on page 35.

Unless instructed in the form of proxy to the contrary, the management proxy nominees named in the enclosed form of proxy intend to vote FOR the advisory resolution on our approach to executive compensation.

5. Other business

Management is not aware of any other matters that may come before the meeting.

VOTING INFORMATION

Who can vote

Each Toromont common share you held on March 12, 2025 (the record date) carries one vote on all items to be voted on at the meeting.

We have prepared a list of registered holders who are entitled to attend the meeting and vote their shares. If you want to check the list for your registration, a copy will be available at the office of TSX Trust Company (TSX Trust), our registrar and transfer agent.

As of February 28, 2025, we had 81,118,368 shares outstanding. Our directors and officers are not aware of any person or company that beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, or controls or directs more than 10% of the voting rights attached to the voting securities of Toromont.

Meeting materials

Notice-and-access delivery

This year, Toromont has again elected to use notice-and-access provisions under National Instrument 54-101 – Communication with Beneficial Owners of Securities of a Reporting Issuer (NI 54-101) and National Instrument 51-102 – Continuous Disclosure Obligations (NI 51-102 and together with NI 54-101, the notice-and-access provisions) for the meeting, pursuant to an exemption from the proxy solicitation requirements granted by the Director of Corporations Canada.

The notice-and-access provisions are a set of rules adopted by Canadian securities regulators that allow issuers to post electronic versions of proxy-related materials online, via SEDAR+ and on our website, rather than mailing paper copies of such materials to shareholders. The use of this alternative means of delivery is more environmentally friendly as it will help reduce paper use and will also reduce the cost of printing and mailing materials to shareholders.

If you would like more information about the notice-and-access rules, please contact Broadridge toll-free at 1-844-916-0609 (English) and/or 1-844-973-0593 (French) or by emailing noticeandaccess@broadridge.com.

Electronic copies of the notice of annual meeting of shareholders and this circular may be found under Toromont's profile on SEDAR+ (www.sedarplus.ca) and also on our website at (www.toromont.com/investors/annual-general-meeting). The electronic copies of investor materials make searching for relevant sections and specific items much easier than finding information in paper versions of these documents.

Please carefully review this circular and the instructions in your proxy form or voting instruction form before voting. You will receive paper copies of a notice package via pre-paid mail containing a notice with information prescribed by NI 54-101 and a form of proxy (if you are a registered shareholder) or a voting instruction form (if you are a non-registered shareholder), including information about, among other things, how to access the circular online, how to obtain a paper copy of the circular and how to vote your shares.

We will not send notices or forms of proxies or voting information forms directly to non-objecting beneficial owners. Instead, we have distributed copies of the notice to intermediaries to send to non-registered shareholders. Intermediaries are required to forward these materials, along with a form of proxy or voting instruction form to all non-registered shareholders for whom they hold shares unless they have waived the right to receive them. Toromont will pay the cost for intermediaries to deliver the notice of annual meeting of shareholders, form of proxy or voting instruction form, and other materials to objecting beneficial owners.

We will not use procedures known as “stratification” in relation to the use of notice-and-access. Stratification occurs when an issuer using notice-and-access sends a paper copy of the circular to some shareholders with a notice package.

How to request a paper copy

Registered shareholders can request paper copies of the circular by calling (English) 1-844-916-0609 or (French) 1-844-973-0593.

Beneficial shareholders can access paper copies of the circular free of charge by visiting www.proxyvote.com and entering the 16-digit number found on your voting instruction form or by calling Broadridge toll-free at 1-877-907-7643. Please note that if you do request a paper copy, you will not receive another form of proxy or voting instruction form; please retain the one accompanying the notice package for voting purposes.

Pursuant to the notice-and-access provisions, we will provide a paper copy of the circular to any shareholder free of charge upon request for a period of one year from the date the circular is filed on SEDAR+. If your request is made before May 1, 2025 (the meeting date), the circular will be sent to you within three business days of receipt of your request. If the request is made on or after May 1, 2025, the circular will be sent to you within 10 calendar days of receiving your request.

If you would like to receive a paper copy of the circular prior to the proxy voting deadline for the meeting of 5:00 p.m. EDT on April 28, 2025 you should take into account the three-business-day period for processing requests as well as the typical mailing times for letter-post mail suggested by Canada Post. If you are a non-registered shareholder, you should also consider your intermediary's deadline, which is generally one business day before the proxy voting deadline. While we cannot assure delivery times, we estimate that any shareholder wishing to obtain a paper copy of the meeting materials before the meeting should submit their request by no later than April 28, 2025.

Under the notice-and-access provisions, meeting materials will be available for viewing on our website for one year from the date the circular is filed on SEDAR+.

How to vote

You can attend the meeting and vote your shares in person, or you can give someone else (your proxyholder) the authority to attend the meeting on your behalf and vote your shares for you according to your instructions (called voting by proxy).

The steps you need to take depend on whether you are a registered or non-registered shareholder.

If you are a registered shareholder, you own the shares in your own name. We send proxy materials directly to our registered shareholders.

Many of our shareholders are non-registered. That means your shares are registered in the name of your intermediary (usually a bank, trust company, brokerage firm, trustee of self-administered registered plans like RRSPs, RRIFs and RESPs or other financial institution) or a clearing agency (such as CDS Clearing and Depository Services Inc.) and you are the beneficial owner of the shares. We send proxy materials to intermediaries and clearing agencies to forward them to our non-registered shareholders unless they have waived the right to receive them. Intermediaries often use service companies to forward meeting materials to non-registered shareholders.

If you hold Toromont shares as a registered shareholder and a beneficial shareholder, you will need to complete a form for the shares you own as a registered shareholder, and a separate form for the shares you own as a beneficial shareholder.

Registered shareholders

Your package includes a proxy form.

Voting at the meeting

If you want to vote your shares in person at the meeting, do not complete the form – just bring photo identification and your form with you to the meeting. Please see a TSX Trust representative when you arrive at the meeting.

Voting by proxy

Voting by proxy is the easiest way to vote. It means you are giving someone else (your proxyholder) authority to attend the meeting and vote on your behalf.

You can appoint someone to be your proxyholder. This person does not need to be a Toromont shareholder. Appoint that person by printing their name in the space provided in the enclosed proxy form.

There are several ways a registered shareholder can vote in advance of the meeting, as set out under How to send your voting instructions below.

TSX Trust must receive your completed proxy form before 5:00 p.m. EDT on April 28, 2025. If the meeting is postponed or adjourned, you must send your completed proxy form at least 48 hours (not including Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before the time of the reconvened meeting. If you do not date your proxy, we will assume the date to be the date TSX Trust received it.

Non-registered (beneficial) shareholders

Your package includes either a proxy form already signed by your intermediary (the registered shareholder), or a voting instruction form.

Voting at the meeting

If you want to vote your shares at the meeting, print your name in the space provided on the form, sign and date it and return it right away. Do not provide your voting instructions because your vote will be taken and counted at the meeting.

Please see a TSX Trust representative when you arrive at the meeting.

Voting by proxy

Voting by proxy is the easiest way to vote. It means you are giving someone else (your proxyholder) the authority to attend the meeting and vote on your behalf.

You can appoint someone to be your proxyholder. This person does not need to be a Toromont shareholder. Appoint that person by printing their name in the space provided in the enclosed proxy or voting instruction form. If you don't appoint a proxyholder, the Toromont representatives named in your form will be your proxyholder.

There are several ways a beneficial owner may be able to vote in advance of the meeting. Please follow the instructions provided by your intermediary for submitting your voting instructions. TSX Trust must receive your completed proxy or voting instruction form before 5:00 p.m. EDT on April 28, 2025. If the meeting is postponed or adjourned, you must send your completed proxy or voting instruction form at least 48 hours (not including Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before the time of the reconvened meeting. If you do not date your proxy or instructions, we will assume the date to be the date TSX Trust received it.

How to send in your voting instructions

To vote in advance of the meeting, complete, sign and date your form and send it to TSX Trust right away, in one of the following ways, or as otherwise instructed by your intermediary:

www.meeting-vote.com

Enter your Control Number and provide your voting instructions online.

Send your form right away

TSX Trust must receive your completed proxy form or voting instruction form before 5:00 p.m. EDT on April 28, 2025. If the meeting is postponed or adjourned, you must send your completed form at least 48 hours (not including Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before the time of the reconvened meeting. If you do not date your proxy form or voting instruction form, we will assume the date to be the date TSX Trust received it.

If you sign and date the form and return it to TSX Trust but do not specify your voting instructions, the Toromont representatives will vote your shares:

- FOR each nominated director
- FOR appointing Ernst & Young LLP as auditor at fees set by the Board
- FOR our advisory resolution on our approach to executive pay

If for any reason a nominated director is unable to serve or there are amendments, variations or other items of business that properly come before the meeting, your proxyholder can use their best judgment to vote as they see fit.

Changing your vote

Voting at the meeting will revoke your previous proxy or voting instructions.

If you are a registered shareholder, you can revoke your form of proxy by:

- completing another form of proxy, signing it and giving it a later date,
- sending a notice in writing, with a later date, and signed by you or your authorized attorney, or
- any other way allowed by law.

Send your new completed form to TSX Trust by mail or fax using the contact information provided above. TSX Trust must receive your new form or notice before 5:00 p.m. EDT on April 28, 2025.

You can also deliver your notice to the Chair of the meeting on the business day before the meeting begins (or on the business day before a reconvened meeting if the meeting is postponed or adjourned). Send your notice to the Corporate Secretary at Toromont Industries Ltd., 3131 Highway 7 West, P.O. Box 5511, Concord, Ontario L4K 1B7.

If you are a beneficial shareholder, you should contact your broker or intermediary to find out if you may vote and how to change or revoke your voting instructions and the timing requirements, or for other voting questions. Intermediaries maintain their own requirements and deadlines for the receipt of revocations, which are typically much further in advance of the meeting than those deadlines set out above.

How votes will be tabulated

Votes and proxies will be counted, verified and tabulated by our transfer agent, TSX Trust, in compliance with the CBCA, our bylaws and proxy protocols. Proxies will be submitted to representatives of Toromont if they contain comments clearly intended for Toromont or to the extent required to meet legal requirements or comply with applicable rules of order.

Voting results

We will announce and post the results of this year's votes on the election of directors and other items of business at the meeting on our website (www.toromont.com) and on SEDAR+ (www.sedarplus.ca) following the meeting.

ABOUT THE NOMINATED DIRECTORS

This year shareholders are being asked to elect ten directors to the Board until the next annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors are elected.

Nine of the ten nominees are independent. The only exception is Michael McMillan, who is our President and Chief Executive Officer. You can read more about director independence beginning on page 21.

Each nominated director is qualified and experienced and has expressed their willingness to serve on our Board for the upcoming year.

The Board's Environmental, Social and Governance Committee regularly evaluates and assesses the size, composition, performance and effectiveness of the Board to ensure it has the necessary skills, experience and diversity to oversee Toromont's management and strategic direction.

None of the nominated directors serves together on another public company board, works full-time for a public company, or has a material interest in any item of business other than the election of directors and except as otherwise set out in this circular by virtue of their beneficial ownership of shares and/or DSUs. We do not anticipate that any of the nominees will be unable to serve as a director. If that happens before the meeting, the Toromont representatives named in the proxy form who will serve as Toromont proxyholders reserve the right to vote at their discretion for another nominee.

You can read more about each nominee in the director profiles beginning on the next page, and the Board committees they currently serve on, on page 19. You can read more about the Board and corporate governance at Toromont beginning on page 20.

Equity ownership

The director profiles include their equity holdings.

We calculated the value of each director's shares and DSUs using $121.47, the closing price of a Toromont share on the TSX on February 28, 2025.

See page 30 for more information about equity ownership requirements for directors. The total accumulated value of directors' equity holdings was $29,817,203 as of February 28, 2025 ($22,847,292 not including unvested equity compensation awards held by Mr. McMillan).

Jeffrey S. Chisholm to retire

ABOUT THE BOARD

Structure

Shareholders	Elect the Board. See our majority voting practices below.
Board of directors	Responsible for governance and stewardship of the company and accountable to Toromont shareholders. You can find a copy of the Board's mandate in Appendix A and on our website (www.toromont.com).
Board Committees	Established by the Board to help carry out its responsibilities: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Audit Committee• Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee• Environmental, Social and Governance Committee The Committees provide expertise and resources in specific areas, enhance the quality of discussion at board meetings and facilitate decision-making. All three Committees are made up of independent directors. The Board and its Committees each meet in camera (without management present) at every meeting. You can read about each Committee on page 19. The Committee mandates are reviewed annually and approved by the Board. They are posted on our website (www.toromont.com).

Leadership and independence

Our articles state that the Board must have from six to 12 members, and that a majority of the directors must be independent and unrelated within the meaning of NI 52-110 and in compliance with NI 58-101 and NP 58-201.

The Chair of the Board is a non-executive role, provides strong leadership to the Board and chairs all board meetings. We believe that having an independent Chair of the Board and separating the Chair and Chief Executive Officer positions fosters strong leadership, rich discussion and effective decision-making. It also avoids potential conflicts of interest.

The Environmental, Social and Governance Committee carefully reviews the circumstances and nature of each director's relationships with Toromont and management to determine whether he or she is independent within the meaning of NI 52-110 and in accordance with NI 58-101 and NP 58-201. Each director signs an annual acknowledgement of his or her independence.

The Environmental, Social and Governance Committee has concluded that nine of our ten nominated directors are independent. Michael McMillan, CEO of Toromont, is the only director who is not independent. None of the nominated directors work full-time at a public company.

Position descriptions

The Board has adopted written position descriptions for the Chair of the Board and each Committee Chair. The position descriptions are reviewed annually and are posted on our website (www.toromont.com).

Majority voting practices

Toromont previously adopted a majority voting policy for its Board nominees in compliance with the Toronto Stock Exchange rules. On August 31, 2022 amendments to the CBCA came into effect introducing statutory voting requirements for uncontested director elections. Under the CBCA: (i) shareholders will be asked to vote "for" or "against" each nominated director; (ii) only nominees receiving a majority of the votes cast in their favour will be elected, subject to limited and defined circumstances; and (iii) if a nominated director does not receive a majority of the votes cast in his or her favour by the shareholders, such nominated director, if he or she is an incumbent director, may continue in office until the earlier of the 90th day after the election, or the day on which his or her successor is appointed or elected. In accordance with the CBCA, the Board may reappoint an incumbent director even if he or she does not receive majority support in the following limited and defined circumstances: (i) to satisfy Canadian residency requirements; or (ii) to satisfy the requirement that at least two directors are not also officers or employees of the company or its affiliates. Toromont intends to adhere to the procedures outlined in its majority voting policy as an overlay to the CBCA majority voting rules in the event any nominated director does not receive a majority of the votes cast for his or her election, except to the extent inconsistent with the provisions of the CBCA.

Building an effective Board

Having a strong and diverse board is critical to fostering healthy discussion and debate, diversity of thoughts, ideas and perspectives, and effective decision-making.

The Board has ongoing discussions about Board composition, succession planning for all Board positions, intended or planned retirement of current directors and whether to grant any exceptions to the retirement policy following the Board assessment process.

The Chair of the Environmental, Social and Governance Committee leads the director recruitment process and receives input on the desired skills and qualifications from all Board members. The Board's nomination of directors policy sets out the criteria and objectives the Committee and the Board use when identifying, evaluating and selecting prospective director candidates. In looking for the most qualified candidates, the Committee considers:

- skills and personal qualities
- industry, business and regional knowledge, based on our current business needs and plans for the future
- diversity of all types, and in particular gender and visible minorities, as well as other designated groups.

When engaging with external search firms to assist in the director recruitment process, the Committee requires them to present prospective candidates who are women, visible minorities and members of other designated groups.

Recruitment process

The Environmental, Social and Governance Committee and the Board maintain a structured approach to Board renewal and succession, and, from time to time, work with an external search firm to help with the director search process and identify suitable candidates – see the four-step process below. The committee and the Board are governed by a written nomination policy in carrying out their responsibilities relating to Board succession, renewal and identification and nomination of suitable candidates to the Board.

1	The Board determines its succession and growth needs. The Board (with the assistance of the Environmental, Social and Governance Committee) annually reviews and determines the competencies and skill sets best suited to complement the existing Board based on the skills matrix (see below), director evaluations and other factors and criteria.
2	The Environmental, Social and Governance Committee receives the information and initiates the search process. It may engage an external search firm to assist in identifying, evaluating and selecting potential candidates. The list is expected to include a sufficient number of candidates to enhance the Board's diversity profile. The Committee assesses the individuals, creates a short list and reviews it with the Board.
3	The Committee Chair and members meet with the short list of candidates. The candidates are given a clear indication of the workload and commitment expectations. Regular progress updates are provided to the Board.
4	The final candidate(s) are recommended to the Board by the Committee. After meeting with all Board members, the final candidate(s) are considered for nomination for election or appointment to the Board.

Diversity on the Board

The Environmental, Social and Governance Committee is responsible for overseeing the implementation of the Board and senior management diversity policy. It evaluates the policy's effectiveness and whether it may be appropriate to set diversity targets, and makes recommendations to the Board. We do not have fixed targets for representation of women or other designated groups because we believe that having quotas or strict rules about Board and leadership diversity may not necessarily result in identifying or selecting the best candidates. The Committee ensures that searches specifically seek out qualified women candidates, visible minorities, and others from designated groups, who may enhance our Board diversity.

Director skills and experience

The Committee has identified the following skills and experience as core qualifications for Board membership.

Strategic insight – experience in strategic planning and implementation and/or ability to think strategically, identify and critically assess strategic opportunities and threats and provide guidance on implementation strategies.

Human capital, leadership and development – experience in talent management, executive compensation, succession planning, pension and benefits programs and human resources practices generally.

Corporate governance – knowledge and experience of legal and governance issues for public companies, including sound practices and their relevance to corporate success, gained through professional qualifications and/or public company board experience.

In addition to the core qualifications described above, the matrix below outlines additional skills and experience that the Board has identified as most important to Toromont. Directors specify their top five skills and the Environmental, Social and Governance Committee reviews each director skillset for alignment and consistency across the Board as a whole. The matrix includes the ten nominated directors. It is reviewed and updated at least annually and is used to assess the effectiveness of the Board and in recruitment and succession planning.

One of the nominated directors has self-identified as a visible minority, representing 10% of the Board. None of the nominated directors identifies as an Indigenous person or as having a disability.

Serving on other boards

We expect our directors to serve on no more than three other public company boards. This is discussed with potential director candidates as part of the screening and recruitment process before a candidate is nominated or appointed to the Board.

We do not have a policy on Board interlocks, but none of the nominated directors currently serve together on another public company board or board committee.

Assessment

The Board assessment process is led by the Chair of the Board with the assistance of the Chair of the Environmental, Social and Governance committee. The Chair of the Board initiates a comprehensive assessment of the Board, Board committees and individual director effectiveness every year. The results are discussed with the Board members as a whole, and are used to enhance the Board, succession planning and corporate governance practices in the context of the changing governance and business environment.

Directors complete a confidential questionnaire that includes an assessment of their own effectiveness as a director, the effectiveness of the Board and its Committees, the effectiveness of the Board and Committee Chairs, Toromont's strategic direction, the Board's interaction with management, diversity and skills the Board needs, and the success of Toromont's communications program. The Chair of the Board meets with individual directors for an in-depth discussion of the questionnaire responses, provides an opportunity for peer reviews, and discusses any other concerns.

Board assessment

In 2023, the Board engaged Watson Board Advisors to carry out a comprehensive third-party assessment of the Board, Board committees and individual director effectiveness.

Retirement policy

Our retirement policy requires that directors not stand for re-election to the Board in the calendar year after they turn 75, unless the Environmental, Social and Governance Committee believes it would be in the best interests of the company for a director to continue to serve on the Board.

Before it grants an exception, the Committee will consider Board composition, an orderly succession and transitioning of functions and responsibilities, the role of the individual director and Toromont's future needs, balancing the depth of knowledge of longer serving directors with the desire for new talent.

Board responsibilities

Risk oversight

The Board is responsible for overall risk oversight.

Toromont maintains a strong risk management culture to protect and enhance shareholder value. Our enterprise risk management program helps us manage risk throughout the organization. Our management team uses a formal review process to identify and assess our principal risks and to develop and implement our response, mitigation and monitoring strategies. These reviews are formally documented in a risk report that is provided to the Board for review and discussion. Management provides regular risk updates to the Board at least quarterly, including updates to the risk report, as well as other developments or emerging trends that may present substantial risk to the business. The adequacy of disclosures of material risks in our management's discussion and analysis and financial statements are reviewed on a quarterly and annual basis.

The Board reviews all material risks in detail, including areas such as business cyclicity, product and service quality and supply, competitive factors, finance matters, cybersecurity, information technology, sustainability and climate-related risks. The Audit Committee and the Board review the adequacy of quarterly and annual disclosure of our key risks.

The Board has assigned specific areas of oversight to each of the Board Committees, to bring their particular knowledge and expertise to the risks that fall within their scope of responsibility. Specific risk oversight responsibilities have been assigned as follows:

- Audit Committee: oversees risks related to financial reporting, system of internal controls, internal and external audit and insurance programs
- Environmental, Social and Governance Committee: oversees environmental, social and governance-related risks, including sustainability and climate-related risks and opportunities
- Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee: oversees risks related to executive compensation practices and policies, succession and organizational development, and operational health and safety risks

You can read more about our material risks and risk management in our 2024 management discussion and analysis on our website (www.toromont.com).

Strategic planning

The Board is directly involved in the strategic planning process. It devotes at least one board meeting every year to discussing and approving strategy. Management provides the Board with updates at least quarterly on progress towards achieving our strategic goals.

We do our annual business planning based on a three-to-four-year strategic plan. We take a bottom-up approach, starting on a branch-by-branch basis, then regionally, by business line and at the senior management level. Annual business plans are developed based on our progress against our strategic plan as well as a comprehensive review and assessment of our results against our plan, our business, competitive and economic environment, and risks and opportunities, among other things. Rigorous reviews are conducted at each level before the plans are submitted for approval at the executive level. Throughout the cycle, our executive team overlays an enterprise view and assessment of the business unit plans. A comprehensive enterprise business plan is then developed and presented to the Board for review, discussion and approval.

The Board approved the current strategic plan for the company in 2023. The strategic plan is aligned with our long-term strategic vision, identifies our strategic goals and sets out the objectives and tactics to help measure our achievement towards those goals over the strategic plan period. The plan is discussed in detail in our current annual information form and management discussion and analysis.

Risk integrated with strategy

Every quarter, management carries out an in-depth analysis of our key risks, and presents them to the Board for detailed discussion and integration into strategy development.

Managing compensation risk

The structure of our compensation plans and our insider trading, anti-hedging and clawback policies help mitigate different types of potential compensation risk (see page 38).

Focus on climate

Sustainability-related risks and opportunities – and in particular the key risks and opportunities of climate change – are integrated into our risk management, annual business planning and strategic planning processes. Climate risks and opportunities are formally integrated into Toromont's three-year strategic plan.

More in the 2024 AIF

You will find more detail about Toromont's approach to climate change and environment, safety, information technology, cybersecurity and other key issues in our 2024 annual information form.

Sustainability

The Board oversees our approach to environmental, social and governance (ESG) matters at Toromont, guided by our values and our Code of Conduct. You can read more about Toromont's approach to ESG in the 2024 Sustainability Report on our website (www.toromont.com).

Oversight

The Board is responsible for overseeing strategy, governance and risk, including sustainability-related and climate-related risks and opportunities. It retains overall oversight of sustainability strategies such as sustainable products and services supporting the energy transition, reducing GHG emissions, water and waste management and supply chain sustainability.

The Environmental, Social and Governance Committee oversees all sustainability-related and climate-related strategies and objectives including climate change responsibilities, monitors changes in regulations and climate change strategies and compliance through Toromont's environmental management program.

The Audit Committee oversees the controls in place to monitor and measure progress on sustainability and climate-related disclosure.

The Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee oversees sustainability strategies and objectives relating to human capital and health and safety, including metrics such as employee engagement and retention, health and safety and executive compensation.

Management

The executive team establishes corporate strategy and objectives, provides leadership to embed corporate values, fosters relationships with stakeholders and scrutinizes results. The executive team sets Toromont's ESG strategies and goals, supports initiatives and monitors progress, leads risk and opportunities assessment and stakeholder engagement.

The Sustainability Committee has the responsibility for substantiating and tracking progress on strategies, objectives and tactics. The committee is made up of operational business leaders from various business units and subject matter experts.

Business unit leaders set objectives and participate in risk opportunities assessment aligned to ESG strategic priorities, allocate resources, deliver human capital strategies, environmental management, and community programs, and grow customer, business partner and community relationships.

Strategy

Toromont's ESG strategy identifies the following focus areas:

- Environment: operational footprint, sustainable products and services for customers, circular economy
- Social: health and safety, building workforce capacity (recruitment, learning and development, retention and engagement), diversity, equity and inclusion
- Governance: Code of Conduct, accountability and aligning executive compensation, cybersecurity and privacy, paying our fair share of taxes.

These help shape our strategic planning, our risk management processes, and our management of day-to-day operations.

Risk management

We consider environmental, climate change, social and governance issues across all aspects of our operations, and include them in our overall enterprise risk management, annual business planning and strategic planning processes.

Objectives and targets

While we do not currently have external sustainability and climate-related targets, we have developed internal objectives and targets across our operating divisions for our key focus areas, and will continue to work toward achieving them.

Annual bonuses are tied to business-specific performance measures derived from strategy and operating plans as well as individual quantitative and qualitative objectives.

Health and safety performance measures are incorporated into to the annual bonus pools of all bonus eligible employees. The Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee oversees the incentive frameworks including how bonuses and objectives are set (see page 42).

In 2024, we retained outside consultants to assess controls and processes for tracking and reporting GHG emissions at all operating divisions, which will allow us to confirm accurate and consistent GHG emissions reporting data. The Audit Committee will be responsible for overseeing internal audit's assessments of GHG and other sustainability-related reporting when it is developed.

Oversight of climate change

The Board's ESG Committee is explicitly responsible for climate change, which has been added to its mandate.

Toromont has a formal ESG strategy that sets out goals, targets and initiatives for climate change matters, and climate change is part of its enterprise risk management program, its annual business planning and its longer-term strategic planning process and plans.

Management reports to the ESG Committee at least three times a year, discussing its progress on:

- preparations for the Canadian Securities Administrators' anticipated adoption and implementation of sustainability standards for Canada, including GHG emissions reporting standards
- operational GHG emission reductions efforts including fleet management and facilities improvements
- supporting customers in meeting their climate change initiatives, including energy transition through products and service offerings.

The Board reviews and approves Toromont's sustainability report on the recommendation of its ESG Committee.

Environmental, Social and Governance Committee – member skills and experience

Members of the Environmental, Social and Governance Committee are required to have knowledge and experience in governance, health and safety, environmental, climate change and other sustainability regulatory requirements, their effective integration into strategy and risk management, and their relevance to corporate success, including some or all of the following:

- health and safety – experience and knowledge of occupational health and safety measures, employee health concerns, safety training, and/or health and safety regulations
- environment – experience and knowledge of greenhouse gas emissions, water and waste management, environmental compliance, circular economy, and/or sustainable products, services, and technology
- social responsibility – experience and knowledge of community engagement, employee recruitment, engagement and retention, learning and development, and/or diversity, equity and inclusion.

Oversight of management

The Board expects management to implement the strategy approved by the Board, achieve their goals and conduct themselves in an ethical and responsible manner that aligns with our values and Code of Conduct. The Board approves the Chief Executive Officer's corporate objectives every year and, with the assistance of the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee, reviews his performance against these objectives (see page 37 to read more about performance assessment and executive compensation).

Leadership development and succession

We have a formal management succession plan that includes all senior management positions at Toromont. The Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee and the Board formally review the succession plan at least once a year and receive periodic updates throughout the year.

The Chief Executive Officer presents the formal management succession plan for leadership roles to the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee. The succession plan includes short-term and longer-term succession candidates and proposed development plans for them. The Committee discusses the details of the succession plan with the Chief Executive Officer and also meets in camera for further discussion. The Committee Chair reports the Committee's recommendations to the Board. The CEO provides updates on succession candidates' progress and development throughout the year.

Leadership diversity

The Board has adopted a Board and leadership diversity policy which sets out our objectives to attract, develop and maintain a Board and leadership team comprised of a diverse group of highly skilled individuals. We recognize that diversity enables greater organizational leadership, strength and performance and is an important component in the recruitment, retention and development of the company's current and future potential leaders.

Diversity is broadly defined and specifically includes characteristics such as gender, race or ethnicity (including Indigenous peoples), sexual orientation, gender identity, age, cultural background, physical and mental ability, religion and other characteristics that make us unique.

The Board is supported by the Environmental, Social and Governance Committee in overseeing the development and progress of diversity policies. Senior management regularly discuss opportunities and monitor strategies for achieving our diversity objectives and broader diversity and inclusiveness initiatives across Toromont. Our diversity strategies specifically consider those who identify as women, visible minorities, persons with disabilities and/or Indigenous peoples. For employment equity purposes and under the CBCA, these groups are defined as "designated groups".

Three of our 11 senior leaders are women, representing 27% of our senior leadership team. Two of our senior leaders (18%) are people with disabilities. There are no senior leaders who identify as a visible minority or an Indigenous person.

Diversity of our leadership team is also affected by other factors, including the level of staff turnover, timing of hiring and promotion opportunities, available pipeline of talent with the necessary skills and experience, among other things. The Board therefore does not set specific diversity representation targets when identifying potential candidates for senior management positions, but does consider diversity and ensures that proactive steps are taken to include qualified individuals from the designated groups in the list of prospective candidates whenever possible.

The Board continues to work to increase diversity at Toromont, including through the initiatives described here and in our 2024 Sustainability Report.

The Board believes we are taking the appropriate actions to continue to advance diversity at the leadership level. The Environmental, Social and Governance Committee reviews our approach to leadership diversity at least annually to determine what changes to policies and procedures may be beneficial to promote diversity.

Diversity in the workplace

We take a number of steps to foster diversity and inclusiveness at Toromont:

- Management tracks our diversity composition as well as the results of diversity-related actions and initiatives and reports annually on its progress to the Environmental, Social and Governance Committee of the Board.
- We have outreach programs to draw from a broad and diverse group of employment candidates for new hires. This includes working with non-profit organizations to identify qualified candidates seeking to overcome disability, doing outreach with Indigenous communities by attending schools and career fairs in remote communities and collaborating with community liaisons, attending "women in trades" events as well as attending career days at secondary schools, colleges and universities and offering targeted scholarships to attract diverse candidates, especially women and others from the designated groups.
- We offer an online diversity and inclusiveness training program through our internal Toromont University, aimed at educating employees on the importance of diversity and inclusiveness, embracing differences and communicating with employees, customers and stakeholders with diverse backgrounds. The course is also part of the Service Management Curriculum for Toromont Cat managers.
- We proactively identify, mentor and select women and other diverse candidates to participate in our leadership development and management trainee programs.
- We are an active participant in the Government of Canada's Federal Contractor Program on Employment Equity.

Stakeholder communications and engagement

We believe in the importance of being transparent and disclosing material information promptly, providing the investment community and other stakeholders with access to relevant and meaningful information about us, and engaging in dialogue with our investor community to receive their feedback.

Our corporate disclosure policy is designed to provide assurance that we release relevant information in an appropriate and timely fashion. The Board, with the support of the Audit Committee, is responsible for annually reviewing our corporate disclosure policy and ensuring that we meet our continuous disclosure obligations. The Chief Financial Officer is responsible for the implementation and day-to-day operations of the policy. We also have a disclosure committee that is made up of key members of senior management who review all corporate disclosure before it is publicly released.

Disclosures made on a regular basis include annual and quarterly earnings releases, financial statements and related management's discussion and analysis, management information circulars, annual information forms, and periodic news releases for material disclosures. We host an investor portal at www.toromont.com which contains a variety of information and documents that we believe are relevant and useful to our stakeholders.

We regularly monitor and engage with proxy advisory groups and governance advocates, such as Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS), Glass Lewis and the Canadian Coalition for Good Governance, to keep informed of evolving governance practices and obtain feedback for continuous improvement.

Designated members of our executive team also reach out to and engage with stakeholders through a variety of means, including conducting a public annual meeting and quarterly earnings calls and webcasts with question and answer sessions, participating in individual and group investor meetings and conferences, and receiving and responding to verbal or written inquiries and feedback from stakeholders. Our engagement covers a broad variety of topics including governance, risk management, executive compensation, sustainability, disclosure and engagement practices, among other things.

Shareholders can communicate with us in several ways, including by mail, telephone, and email through our website (www.toromont.com). We also have an anonymous compliance hotline for issues or concerns about a breach or suspected breach of our Code of Conduct. We deal with all inquiries promptly. Depending on the nature of the shareholder inquiry, the CFO, CEO and/or Chair of the Board or other independent directors (as designated by the Board) may engage with shareholders and other stakeholders to understand their opinions and concerns.

Both management and the Board invite stakeholders to engage with Toromont representatives and Board members if you have any questions or concerns. You can reach management and the Chair of the Board using the contact information in the box above. Any correspondence that is addressed to a particular individual, including the Chair of the Board, will be promptly provided to that person.

WHAT WE EXPECT OF DIRECTORS

Integrity

We strive to maintain a highly ethical culture and have a Code of Conduct that applies to directors, officers and employees. The code sets out our expectations for ethical culture and appropriate behaviour, and provides guidance on areas such as conflicts of interest, protection and proper use of corporate assets, confidentiality of information and customer, supplier and competitor relationship management.

Every year we require our directors, officers and employees to acknowledge their compliance with the code. The code requires that only the Board or one of its committees may provide a waiver from the provisions of the code for matters involving our directors or senior officers. The Audit Committee and the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee receive regular compliance reports on the code.

We have a toll-free, telephone hotline (1-866-254-2730) and web-based hotline (www.openboard.info/tih) for employees and others to report a suspected accounting or auditing irregularity or other breach of the code. Reports are confidential and can be made anonymously and all good faith concerns are handled respectfully and without reproach.

The code is reviewed annually by the Board and is available on our website (www.toromont.com).

Avoiding conflicts of interest

If we are considering a transaction or agreement and a director or executive officer has a material interest (a related party transaction), he or she must disclose their interest and not participate in any discussions or vote on the matter. Any related party transaction must be approved by the Board.

Equity ownership

Equity ownership at all levels of Toromont has been a cornerstone of our operating philosophy.

Directors are expected to own at least three times their total annual Board retainer in Toromont equity within five years of their election to the Board. Directors can count Toromont shares and DSUs toward meeting the requirement. Directors can also choose to receive the cash component of their Board retainer and committee retainers in DSUs. DSUs track the underlying value of our shares on the TSX, and therefore help align the interests of directors with those of our shareholders. DSUs may not be redeemed until a director ceases to be on the Board.

The table below shows director equity ownership as at December 31, 2024. Michael McMillan, our CEO, is not included in the table because he has to meet our equity ownership requirements for executives (see page 39).

	2024 Base retainer	Equity ownership requirement	Shares and/or DSUs currently owned		Meets requirement

Skills and development

The Environmental, Social and Governance Committee provides an orientation program for new directors and continuing education for the entire Board to enhance their knowledge and ability to effectively carry out their responsibilities.

Orientation

Our director orientation program is designed to familiarize new directors with their Board and committee responsibilities and our business, strategy and industry so they can make meaningful contributions from the outset.

New directors:

- are assigned an individual Board member as their mentor for their first year on the Board
- meet with the President and Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer, Chair of the Board, Chairs of the Board committees and other senior executives to learn about our business and strategy first-hand
- meet with senior management and go on tours of each principal business unit
- receive a copy of our director's manual that sets out, amongst other things, their general responsibilities and our expectations of directors, information about our strategy and our products, services, suppliers and customers, and a review of our financial condition and results
- meet with other members of management and external advisors, where appropriate, to review their duties and responsibilities as a member of the Board.

The director's manual includes:

- materials about our corporate structure, strategy, financial plan and budgets
- the Board mandate and committee mandates
- corporate governance policies
- key position descriptions
- our most recent continuous disclosure documents
- director education and reference materials.

Continuing education

We expect directors to learn about our business, the sectors we operate in, emerging trends and issues and our strategic initiatives.

The Board and the Environmental, Social and Governance Committee look at director training needs as part of the annual Board assessment process, to make sure education supports specific areas of the Board's focus and the current business environment. Development and training sessions are normally held in conjunction with Board meetings. Additionally, directors attend seminars and programs provided by third party industry or subject matter experts and provide reports to the other directors as appropriate.

Board meetings are held at various Toromont sites so directors can learn more about our different businesses firsthand. Directors receive comprehensive information before each Board and committee meeting and can attend meetings of committees even if they are not members.

Education sessions typically include:

- presentations about each business unit, the business environment, risk management, corporate development opportunities, legal and regulatory updates and other corporate matters
- presentations by external subject matter experts and advisors
- presentations from other directors about what they learned at industry conferences.

Directors also have an opportunity to engage with customers, other stakeholders and senior management in formal and informal meetings. They also have full access to senior management and other employees as necessary.

Director education in 2024 included the following:

2024	Topic	Attendees
Quarterly	Succession planning and executive leadership development Presentations by CEO and VP, People and Culture	Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee
Quarterly	Technology, cyber-security and digital commerce insights Presentations by the Chief Information Officer	Board
Quarterly	Strategy and Industry trends Presentations by business unit leaders, external consultants and Caterpillar representatives	Board
Quarterly	Business unit updates and developments Presentations by business unit leaders	Board
Quarterly	Governance, regulatory and financial reporting updates Presentations by VP Finance, General Counsel and external auditor	Board and Audit Committee

Directors also receive materials to support our educational initiatives. Materials are updated from time to time with new topics, updates on previous presentations, strategic priorities and other select topics. Our skills matrix on page 23 gives a snapshot of the skills and experience of the current Board.

Additional director disclosure

Peter Blake, a director of Toromont, was previously the chief executive officer of WEQ Holdings Inc. (WEQ) until December 17, 2018, when WEQ commenced court supervised voluntary liquidation proceedings under the CBCA in order to distribute the net proceeds following the sale of substantially all of its assets. In December of 2020, the court made a conditional order discharging the liquidator of WEQ and the company was dissolved in June 2021.

The liquidation was commenced following the sale of one of WEQ's two previous main divisions. WEQ had previously sold the assets of its other main division, Pacific Coast Modular Construction LP (PCMC LP), whose general partner is Pacific Coast Modular Construction Inc. (PCMC GP) in the spring of 2017. Following the sale of the assets of PCMC LP in 2017, the proceeds were used to repay some of PCMC LP's debts. On May 31, 2019, following the commencement of WEQ's liquidation proceedings, PCMC GP and PCMC LP each filed an assignment in bankruptcy. At the time of the assignment into bankruptcy, PCMC LP and PCMC GP had nominal assets and their only liabilities were tax, a contingent liability and inter-company debts. Mr. Blake was a director of PCMC GP at the time of the bankruptcy filings. A discharge order was granted for the PCMC GP bankruptcy in November of 2020 and for the PCMC LP bankruptcy in February 2021.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Directors receive annual and committee retainers for serving on our Board. In 2025 they will receive 60% of their annual retainer in deferred share units (DSUs) to build their equity ownership and to align with shareholder interests. They may also elect to receive all or a portion of the remainder of their annual retainer and their committee retainer in DSUs instead of cash.

Directors who are executive officers of Toromont or its subsidiaries do not receive director's fees, except in special circumstances approved by the Board. Michael McMillan does not receive any compensation as a director because he is compensated in his role as CEO (see page 35).

The Environmental, Social and Governance Committee is responsible for the director compensation program. The Committee reviews the program every year and recommends any changes to the Board for approval. In 2024, the Committee approved modest increases to the Annual and Committee Chair retainers to bring them in line with peers. The Committee retained Hexarem to assist in the review, using the same peer group it used in its review of executive compensation (see page 38).

About DSUs

A deferred share unit is a notional unit that tracks the value of a Toromont common share. DSUs earn additional units as dividend equivalents when dividends are paid on our shares.

We calculate the number of DSUs granted by dividing the amount of director fees the director is receiving in DSUs by the volume weighted average price for Toromont shares on the TSX for the five trading days immediately before the grant date.

DSUs granted to directors vest immediately but are only paid out in the form of newly issued Toromont shares when a director retires from the Board.

DSUs have been granted under the long-term incentive plan since September 1, 2022. Under the long-term incentive plan, DSUs:

- are granted to directors at the discretion of the Board
- earn dividend equivalents in the form of additional units at the same rate as dividends paid on our shares
- vest on the day they are granted, but the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee can choose the vesting date for any grant of DSUs, and can specify that a grant of DSUs will vest incrementally over a period of time
- are settled in cash or shares, at the discretion of the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee at the time of grant, and paid out only after the director retires from the Board. The current practice is to grant DSUs settled in shares.

Directors may elect to receive DSUs instead of cash for some or all of their director fees, as outlined above. Directors may also be granted additional DSUs on a discretionary basis from time to time by the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee, as long as the total fair market value on the grant date of all DSUs granted to any one director under the long-term incentive plan does not exceed $150,000 within any one financial year of the company, except for DSUs the Committee grants in lieu of director fees and as one-time initial grants to new directors when they first join the board. No discretionary DSUs have been granted to directors.

DSUs issued before September 1, 2022 were granted under the DSU plan, which includes the following terms:

- the Board determines when and if DSUs are granted
- DSUs earn dividend equivalents in the form of additional units at the same rate as dividends paid on our shares
- DSUs are redeemed for cash after the director retires from the Board.

We are no longer issuing DSUs under the DSU plan, except dividend equivalents on existing DSUs.

Director compensation table

The table below shows the fees we paid to each director in 2024. Michael McMillan is not included in the table because he is compensated in his role as CEO (see page 39). In 2024, directors received at least 55% of their annual retainer in DSUs, but could choose to receive some or all of their other fees in DSUs.

	Fees earned					Total received in DSUs

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Our approach

The Board has structured Toromont's executive compensation program to pay for performance, attract the best talent available, and ensure executives have a vested interest in the long-term success of the company. Executives are expected to invest in Toromont, and that expectation is built into the structure of the compensation program. The result is a team of senior leaders who have a significant personal stake in Toromont's success.

Our compensation strategy has four elements:

- attract, motivate and retain superior executive talent by making sure compensation is competitive
- motivate performance by linking incentive compensation to specific business performance goals
- recognize performance and potential by maintaining a high proportion of pay at risk
- encourage commitment to Toromont and link compensation with long-term shareholder interests by including equity-based incentives as part of executive compensation.

Compensation governance

The Board is responsible for approving, monitoring and making changes to our executive compensation program. The Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee oversees executive compensation on behalf of the Board, including our annual bonus, our equity incentive plans and our pension and other benefit plans. Members of the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee are required to have a thorough understanding of compensation plans and practices to make sure the Committee has the expertise necessary to carry out its mandate. The Environmental, Social and Governance Committee looks at the mix of skills and experience of the directors on the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee annually to make sure it remains appropriate. Compensation decision-making

Compensation decisions are made using a systematic five-step process:

Independent advice

From time to time, the Committee will engage with independent consultants for independent advice, including comparative market data, advice about decisions related to executive compensation, and reports on compensation trends. In 2023, the Committee retained Hexarem Inc. for advice on certain aspects of executive compensation.

Benchmarking

We use a peer group of comparable industrial companies to benchmark total executive compensation and each compensation element. Companies are selected because they operate in industries similar to ours in Canada, are of similar size (by assets, revenue, or market capitalization), and we may compete with them for talent. We use the same peer group to benchmark director compensation (see page 33).

The peer group has not changed since 2021.

2024 peer group

Aecon Group Inc.	Finning International Inc.	Stantec Inc.
Agnico Eagle Mines Limited	Kinross Gold Corporation	Stella-Jones Inc.
AltaGas Ltd.	Martinrea International Inc.	TFI International Inc.
Atco Ltd.	Methanex Corporation	Wajax Corporation
AutoCanada Inc.	Ritchie Bros. Auctioneers Inc.	West Fraser Timber Co. Ltd.
Canfor Corporation	Russel Metals Inc.

Managing compensation risk

Toromont has a strong ethical culture. We mitigate compensation risk through the design of our compensation program and our risk management policies.

Program design

- a significant portion of executive compensation is allocated to variable or performance-based compensation
- balanced between the annual bonus and equity incentives
- the annual bonus pool must be approved by the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee and the Board, determining how much of each pool will be distributed every year (the undistributed amount cannot be carried forward)
- bonuses are linked to corporate and individual performance
- bonuses can be zero and are capped (ranging from 1x to 2x salary)
- equity incentives vest over time (PSUs and RSUs over three years, and options over five years), focusing executives on consistently improving company performance over the longer term
- we have robust equity ownership requirements for all executives, and the CEO must retain his share ownership level for one year following his retirement
- executives do not receive the option portion of their equity incentive award unless they meet their equity ownership requirement, to help align the interests of executives with the interests of shareholders
- our insider trading, anti-hedging and clawback policies help mitigate different types of potential compensation risk

The Board has not identified any risks arising from Toromont's compensation policies and practices that are likely to have a material adverse effect on the company.

Insider trading

Toromont has a formal insider trading policy. We encourage our employees to be Toromont shareholders, but discourage them from actively trading in our shares or hedging (see below). Insiders are not allowed to trade during blackout periods (for example, the period before we release our quarterly or annual financial results).

Hedging

Toromont has an anti-hedging policy. Directors, officers (including the named executives) and insiders are not allowed to use strategies (like prepaid variable forward contracts, equity swaps, collars or units of exchange funds) to hedge or offset a decrease in the market value of Toromont securities they hold directly or indirectly.

Clawbacks

Toromont has a clawback policy. If an officer (including a named executive) commits fraud or is guilty of gross negligence or malfeasance (misconduct) whether or not there is a financial restatement, the Board, on the recommendation of the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee, can claw back the amount of the executive's annual bonus and equity incentives.

Equity ownership

We expect the named executives to own Toromont securities as a way to align their interests with shareholders. Executives must own a specified multiple of their annual salary in Toromont equity, ranging from 1.5 to five times salary. The CEO must maintain his ownership level for at least one year after he is no longer CEO. Executives have five years from the date of appointment to the position to meet the requirement and can include the value of Toromont shares, DSUs and certain executive deferred share units (EDSUs) toward meeting the equity ownership requirement. See page 46 for more information about EDSUs.

Executives have to meet their equity ownership requirement before they can receive an option grant.

We calculate equity ownership for this purpose every year using the fair market value of a Toromont share at the time of the calculation.

The table below shows the number and value of the shares and DSUs for each named executive owned as of December 31, 2024. Currently, there are no EDSUs that are eligible for purposes of calculating share ownership of the named executives.

Shares

Includes shares executives own directly and through the employee share purchase plan. Values are calculated using $113.64, the closing price of a Toromont share on the TSX on December 31, 2024.

DSUs

Executives can choose to receive some or all of their annual bonus in DSUs instead of cash. DSUs can only be redeemed after the executive retires or leaves the company. Values above are calculated using $113.64, the closing price of a Toromont share on the TSX on December 31, 2024.

Compensation program

Compensation of the executives includes five elements: salary, annual bonus, equity incentives, retirement benefits and other benefits and perquisites. In combination, these elements are designed to balance compensation over time, in line with achieving Toromont's short and long-term business objectives.

A significant component of an executive's annual compensation is variable and at risk, to emphasize the importance of business and shareholder returns over the longer term, and continuous improvements in Toromont's financial performance.

2024 Performance and compensation

Compensation mix

The graphs below show the mix of compensation the named executives received for 2024.

Annual salary

Executives are paid an annual salary for performing their day-to-day roles. Salaries are determined mainly by the nature of the position and the contribution of each named executive. We believe current salaries are reasonable and competitive.

The table below shows the annual salaries awarded to the named executives for 2023 and 2024 – see page 49 for the salaries they actually received in 2023 and 2024.

	2023	2024	Awarded Change
Michael McMillan ¹	$700,000	$700,000	–
John Doolittle ¹	$475,000	$475,000	–
Michael Cuddy	$421,500	$435,000	3.2%
Joel Couture	$435,000	$445,000	2.3%
Miles Gregg	$395,000	$406,000	2.8%

¹ On October 15, 2023, Mr. McMillan was promoted from the role of CFO, and Mr. Doolittle was hired as Executive Vice President and CFO to succeed Mr. McMillan.

Annual bonus

Annual bonuses are paid in cash based on corporate and individual performance.

Target bonuses are calculated as a percentage of salary and vary by role. The table below shows the targets and maximums for 2024.

	Target annual bonus	Maximum annual bonus
Michael McMillan	133%	200%
John Doolittle	100%	150%
Michael Cuddy	85%	125%
Joel Couture	85%	125%
Miles Gregg	75%	100%

Executives can choose to receive some or all of their annual bonus in DSUs instead of cash – see page 44 for more information.

The amount the executive actually receives depends on our performance against corporate and individual metrics that are tied to our strategy and operating plans. If metrics are not achieved the executive may receive no bonus. The Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee reviews the metrics and weightings used in for the annual bonus at the beginning of every year. The Committee believes annual bonus payouts are aligned with shareholder interests.

Annual bonus for 2024

The table below shows how we calculated the annual bonus for each of the named executives except Joel Couture and Miles Gregg, who are named executives of a business unit.

2024 Performance factors
2024 salary	Target annual bonus	Return on shareholders' equity performance factor	Growth in earnings per share performance factor	Individual performance factor	2024 annual bonus
	x As a percent of salary	x	+	+	=
		Weighting: 65%	Weighting: 25%	Weighting: 10%	Capped at 100%-200% of salary depending on the role

Calculating the 2024 performance factors

The 2024 annual bonus was based 90% on corporate performance (return on shareholders' equity, earnings per share growth), and 10% on individual performance. Mr. Couture's and Mr. Gregg's awards were primarily based on the financial and operational performance of their respective business units and their individual performance.

We measure performance for compensation purposes after adjusting for certain non-operating items which contributed positively to results. In 2024, this included adjusting for certain real estate and one-time gains. Adjusted results and related terms are not defined terms under GAAP and may not be comparable to similar terms used by other reporting issuers.

1. Return on adjusted shareholders' equity (65%)

Why we use it

Focuses executives on growth and building shareholder value and has been a key performance indicator for our corporate performance for over three decades. It is calculated as adjusted net earnings divided by opening shareholders' equity, adjusted for items which contributed positively to earnings. Targets are set taking into account the performance of our peer group, and there is a built-in growth requirement as shareholders' equity increases.

The payout from this factor is zero if performance is below threshold.

How we calculated the 2024 performance factor for return on shareholders' equity

	Threshold	Target	Maximum
Return on shareholders' equity	8%	18%	23%

2024 actual
19.8%

2. Earnings per share growth (25%)

Why we use it

Further aligns executive compensation with the growth in our earnings and building shareholder value. Calculated as the change in earnings per share from the previous year, after adjusting for certain non-operating items which contributed positively to earnings. Targets are set taking into account the performance of our peer group.

The payout from this factor is zero if performance is below threshold.

How we calculated the 2024 performance factor for growth in earnings per share

	Threshold	Below target	Target	Maximum
Earnings per share growth	-10%	0	10%	20%

2024 actual
-3.6%

3. Individual performance (10%)

Why we use it

The Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee approves qualitative measures for corporate executives and the CEO. The CEO approves qualitative measures for business unit leaders.

Qualitative and quantitative measures are tied to specific behaviours, and to initiatives that vary every year depending on our annual strategy and operating plan. Measures include aspects of our ESG initiatives such as health and safety results and the advancement of specific ESG strategies, such as expansion of remanufacturing operations and sales of more sustainable products and services.

Other measures can include things like key project execution, leadership, succession planning, customer loyalty, relationships with key suppliers, risk management oversight and other factors the Committee has approved.

If a named executive meets his or her individual performance expectations, the performance factor will be calculated at target. The executive will earn up to the maximum performance factor if his or her performance significantly exceeds expectations, or below his or her target if not all performance expectations were fully met.

The Committee has the discretion to increase or decrease individual bonuses. For example, additional bonuses may be paid to executives for extraordinary performance. The Board approves the final bonus for the CEO, and the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee approves the bonuses for the other named executives.

Deferred share units (DSUs)

Certain key employees, including the named executives, can choose to receive some or all of their annual cash bonus as deferred share units (DSUs). This helps them increase their investment in Toromont and links the amount they eventually receive to the performance of our shares.

We calculate the number of DSUs granted by dividing the amount of the bonus the holder has chosen to receive in DSUs by the volume weighted average closing price of a Toromont share on the TSX for the five trading days immediately before the grant date.

DSUs have been granted under the long-term incentive plan since April 28, 2022. Under the long-term incentive plan, DSUs:

- are granted to key employees at the discretion of the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee. Certain key employees, including the named executives, can choose to receive some or all of their annual cash bonus as DSUs, at the discretion of the Committee
- earn dividend equivalents in the form of additional units at the same rate as dividends paid on our shares
- vest on the day they are granted if received in lieu of cash bonus, but the Committee can choose the vesting date for any other grant of DSUs, and can specify that a grant of DSUs will vest incrementally over a period of time
- are settled in cash or shares, at the discretion of the Committee at the time of grant date, and paid out only after the holder retires or leaves Toromont. The current practice is to grant DSUs settled in shares.

DSUs granted before April 28, 2022 were issued under the DSU plan, which includes the following terms:

- the board determines when DSUs are granted in lieu of bonus
- DSUs earn dividend equivalents in the form of additional units at the same rate as dividends paid on our shares
- DSUs can only be redeemed for cash after the holder retires or leaves Toromont.

We are no longer issuing DSUs under the DSU plan, except dividend equivalents on existing DSUs.

Equity incentives

Equity incentive awards are calculated as a percentage of salary that varies by executive.

Awards are allocated 50% to options and 50% to share-based awards. Executives do not receive the amount allocated to options if they have not met their minimum equity ownership requirement. See page 53 for more information about the option plan and options, and page 54 for more information about the long-term incentive plan.

In 2024, we began awarding all equity incentives under the long-term incentive plan. Before then, options were awarded under the existing option plan, and share-based awards were issued under the long-term incentive plan.

2024 equity incentives

The 2024 equity incentive awards for the named executives were allocated 50% to options and 50% to PSUs. We calculated the number of options granted by dividing the dollar amount of the award by the Black-Scholes grant value (see page 49 for details). We calculated the number of PSUs granted by dividing the dollar amount of the award by $125.11, the five-day volume weighted average trading price of our common shares on the TSX at the time of grant.

	2024 equity incentive award	Allocation

Details about equity incentives

	Options	Performance share units	Restricted share units
Who participates	Named executives, other senior management and high potential employees.	Named executives and key senior management.	Other senior management and high potential employees.
Allocation	50% of the award is allocated to options. Executives will not receive this portion of their equity incentive award if they have not met their minimum equity ownership requirement (see Equity ownership requirement on the next page).	50% of the award for named executives and key senior management is allocated to PSUs. Before the grant date, executives can choose to receive EDSUs instead of PSUs to help them reach their minimum equity ownership requirement (see Equity ownership requirement on the next page).	50% of the award for other senior management and high potential employees is allocated to RSUs. Before the grant date, executives can choose to receive EDSUs instead of RSUs to help them reach their minimum equity ownership requirement (see Equity ownership requirement on the next page).
Awards	Awards are calculated as a percentage of salary. The CEO recommends equity incentive awards to the Committee. The Committee reviews the CEO's recommendations, and approves the final awards after considering: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> individual and corporate performance confirmation of minimum share ownership requirement (see Equity ownership requirement, below) competitive market practices for total compensation. The number of options granted is calculated using the grant date Black-Scholes value for options. The number of PSUs and RSUs granted is calculated using the market value of a Toromont share at the time of grant, as determined by the Committee.
Dividend equivalents	Options do not earn dividend equivalents.	PSUs and RSUs are credited as additional units at the same rate as dividends paid on Toromont shares and subject to the same vesting conditions as the underlying units.

	Options	Performance share units	Restricted share units
Vesting	Options typically vest 20% per year over five years, starting on the first anniversary of the grant date. Unexercised options expire 10 years from the date of the grant.	PSUs generally vest three years from the grant date. The number of units that vest depends on our three-year performance against two equally weighted performance conditions that are set at the time of grant, aligned with our strategy and approved by the Committee: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • three-year average relative TSR (compared to the S&P/TSX Composite Index, an established stock index selected because it aligns payouts with shareholder interests) • three-year average return on capital employed (ROCE). Vesting will range from 0% to a cap of 200%. Relative TSR below the 25th percentile will result in a TSR multiplier of 0%. ROCE below threshold performance will result in an ROCE multiplier of 0%.	RSUs generally vest three years from the grant date.
Payout	The Board sets the exercise price at the time the option is granted, normally the volume weighted average trading price of Toromont shares on the TSX for the five trading days immediately before the grant date. If the grant date falls within a blackout period, the exercise price of each option will be the average trading price of Toromont shares on the TSX for the five trading days following the end of the blackout period, if higher than the calculation above. Subject to the discretion of the Board, a participant may elect to forfeit/dispose of options to the company for a cash payment equal to the difference between the fair market value and the exercise price of the options. Any such forfeited/disposed options will be cancelled.	Payouts are settled in shares issued from treasury. Alternatively, at the time of grant, the Committee can elect to settle payouts in cash. Building shareholder value

The graph below compares our total cumulative shareholder return over the past five years with the cumulative total return of the S&P/TSX Composite Total Return Index. It assumes $100 was invested in our shares and in the index on December 31, 2019, and that dividends were reinvested during the period.

as of December 31	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024
Toromont (TIH)	$100.00	$128.58	$167.01	$144.63	$174.42	$173.14
S&P/TSX Composite Total Return Index	$100.00	$105.60	$132.10	$124.38	$138.99	$169.09

Analyzing pay and performance

The table below illustrates that what we pay our executives is in line with our performance. It compares the total compensation paid to the named executives with our total shareholder return and return on shareholders' equity and growth in earnings per share, both of which are key performance measures in our compensation plans and our financial reporting. The total compensation paid to the named executives in 2024 represented 1.7% of our net income in 2024.

as of December 31	2020	2021	2022	2023	2024
Total compensation paid to the named executives ($ millions)	$7.1	$8.8	$9.7	$10.6	$8.6
Change in compensation paid to the named executives	(14.5%)	25.2%	9.9%	9.2%	(19.2%)
Total shareholder return	28.6%	29.9%	(13.4)%	20.6%	(0.7)%
Return on shareholders' equity	16.6%	19.6%	23.5%	23.1%	19.2%
Earnings per share growth	(11.9%)	30.0%	37.0%	17.8%	(4.9)%

For comparability year over year, we include the CEO and CFO and the three other most highly compensated named executives as of December 31 of each year.

Looking back at the CEO's compensation

The table below shows what our President and CEO, Michael McMillan earned in 2024, and what it was worth on December 31, 2024. We show only one year because he was appointed to the role as of October 15, 2023.

What the CEO earns over time (his realized pay) is directly linked to our share price. The value of both options and PSUs (new in 2022) changes over time and is determined by our share price, in addition to performance measures attached to the PSUs. See page 45 for more information about equity incentives.

Change in CEO compensation over time

Compensation year	CEO pay	Value as of December 31, 2024
2024	$2,793,074	$2,258,144

CEO pay each year includes salary, annual bonus incentive, equity incentives, pension and other compensation the CEO received for the year, as reported in the summary compensation table in each year's circular.

Value as of December 31, 2024 includes salary, annual bonus, pension and other compensation, plus the realized value of options that have already been exercised, the realizable value of unvested PSUs (including EDSUs received in lieu of PSUs) (assuming a performance multiplier of 1 for all unvested grants and 1.4 for the 2022 grants that vested on February 24, 2025) and the outstanding in-the-money options granted in the relevant compensation year (whether vested or unvested), using $113.64, the closing price of a Toromont share on the TSX on December 31, 2024.

Annual salary

Includes actual amounts received as salary. See page 41 for annual salary levels.

Share-based awards

Includes PSUs (including EDSUs received in lieu of PSUs) awarded under the long-term incentive plan, multiplied by the five-day volume weighted average trading price of our common shares on the TSX at the time of grant: $125.11 for 2024, $112.48 for 2023 and $107.36 for 2022.

Annual non-equity incentive plan awards

Includes the annual bonus awarded on February 12, 2025 (see page 42 for more information). The named executives can choose to receive DSUs instead of cash for some or all of their annual bonus (see page 44). For 2024, Mr. McMillan elected to receive 70% of his annual bonus in the form of DSUs. Mr. Doolittle elected to receive 100% of his annual bonus in the form of DSUs. Mr. Couture elected to receive 50% of his annual bonus in the form of DSUs.

Pension value

Includes payments to the defined contribution plan and the supplemental employee retirement plan. Actual pension values are calculated to December 31, 2024, and actual supplemental employee retirement plan balances as at December 31, 2024. See page 56 for more information about retirement plans.

Option-based awards

Includes options granted under the existing option plan (see page 45 for details). We use the Black-Scholes method to calculate the grant value of options because it is commonly used, accepted by the market and consistent with past practice. We used grant date fair values of $27.86 in 2024, $24.20 in 2023 and $22.27 in 2022 based on the following assumptions.

strike price	$107.36	$112.48	$125.11
expected life of option	5.30 years	4.94 years	5.0 years
expected stock price volatility	21.5%	22.0%	22.0%
expected dividend yield	1.45%	1.53%	1.53%
risk-free interest rate	2.77%	3.40%	3.70%

All other compensation

Includes executive medical, life insurance, club dues, consulting, car allowance, car maintenance and employer ESPP contributions.

Incentive plan awards

The table below shows all outstanding equity incentive awards as of December 31, 2024, including units earned as dividend equivalents.

The value of unexercised in-the-money options is the difference between the option's exercise price and $113.64, the closing price of a Toromont share on the TSX on December 31, 2024.

The value of unvested share-based awards is calculated assuming performance at target and using $113.64, the closing price of a Toromont share on the TSX on December 31, 2024. All share-based awards are PSUs or EDSUs the executive elected to receive in lieu of PSUs.

Incentive plan awards – value vested or earned during the year

The table below shows the value of each named executive's equity-based awards that vested in 2024 and their 2024 annual bonus. See pages 45 and 53 for more information about options and the long-term incentive plan.

The values in the table below are calculated as follows:

- vested option-based awards is the amount the named executive would have realized if the options that vested in 2024 had been exercised on the vesting date (the difference between the option's exercise price and the actual market price of a Toromont share on the TSX on the vesting date).
- non-equity incentive plan compensation is the annual bonus each named executive was awarded for 2024.

No share-based awards vested in 2024, except DSUs the named executives chose to receive instead of cash for their annual bonus (which are included in the non-equity incentive plan column below). See page 44 for more information.

	Option-based awards – value vested during the year	Non-equity incentive plan compensation – value earned during the year

Miles Gregg	$14,103	$351,000

Options exercised in 2024

The table below shows the options the named executives exercised in 2024. The gain is the difference between the exercise price of an option and the actual market price of a Toromont share on the TSX at the time the option is exercised (before taxes and expenses).

Michael Cuddy	15,800	$1,395,160

Shares

Includes shares executives own directly and through the employee share purchase plan. We calculated the value using the closing price of a Toromont share on the TSX on December 31: $113.64 for 2024, $116.10 for 2023 and $97.71 for 2022.

DSUs

Executives can choose to receive some or all of their annual bonus in DSUs instead of cash. DSUs can only be redeemed after the executive retires or leaves the company. We calculated the values using the closing price of a Toromont share on the TSX on December 31: $113.64 for 2024, $116.10 for 2023 and $97.71 for 2022. See page 44 for more information about DSUs.

Options

The value of unexercised in-the-money options is the difference between the option's exercise price and the closing price of a Toromont share on the TSX on December 31: $113.64 for 2024, $116.10 for 2023 and $97.71 for 2022.

PSUs

Includes PSUs granted under the long-term incentive plan (and EDSUs granted in lieu of PSUs), plus units earned as dividend equivalents. We calculated the value using the closing price of a Toromont share on the TSX on December 31: $113.64 for 2024, $116.10 for 2023 and $97.71 for 2022. For any units where the performance period is not complete, we assumed a performance multiplier of 1. We used a performance multiplier of 1.4 for the 2022 PSU and EDSU grants because the performance period for these units is complete and the performance factor has been determined.

Securities authorized for issue under the equity incentive plans

We are authorized to issue equity securities under the option plan and the long-term incentive plan. Both plans are administered by the Board. In 2024, we began awarding options under the long-term incentive plan and closed the option plan to new option grants.

About the option plan (see page 45)

Plan limits

- Maximum number of Toromont shares that can be issued under the option plan: 7,000,000 (approximately 8.5% of total shares outstanding).
- Maximum number of Toromont shares that can be issued to any one participant: 5% of total shares outstanding on the grant date.
- Total number of Toromont shares that can be issued to insiders in any one-year period or that are issuable to insiders at any time under the option plan, together with any other securities-based compensation arrangement: 10% of total shares outstanding.
- Maximum number of Toromont shares that can be issued in any one calendar year: 1% of total shares outstanding at the beginning of that year.

Making changes to the plan

The Board can deduct withholding taxes and make changes to the plan that are administrative or housekeeping in nature without shareholder approval. Examples of the types of changes to the plan that the Board is entitled to make without shareholder approval include:

- amendments to ensure continuing compliance of the plan with applicable laws
- amendments to eliminate any ambiguity or correct any provisions that are incorrect or incompatible with the other provisions of the plan
- adding a cashless exercise feature which provides for a full deduction of the underlying shares from the plan reserve.

The Board needs shareholder approval to make any of the following changes to the plan:

- increase the number of shares available for issue under the plan
- reduce the exercise price of an option
- extend the term of an option
- change the number of shares that can be issued to insiders
- change certain amendment provisions of the plan
- expand the eligibility criteria and limits for participation that apply to non-employee directors under the option plan.

Other plan terms

- The treatment of options under the plan varies upon a participant ceasing to be an employee of the company, depending on the scenario giving rise to such cessation. Options automatically expire and are terminated if an employee is terminated for cause, whereas some or all of the options may be exercisable if employment ceases due to death, disability, retirement or upon a change of control of the company.
- Options are personal to each participant and may not be assigned or transferred.
- The plan will terminate on April 15, 2027 unless it is (i) discontinued earlier in accordance with its terms or (ii) renewed or further renewed from time to time by the Board for a period of time not to exceed three years.
- In 2024, we began awarding options under the long-term incentive plan and closed the existing option plan to new option grants.

About the long-term incentive plan (see page 45)

Plan limits

- Maximum number of Toromont shares that can be issued in respect of DSUs, EDSUs, PSUs and RSUs under the long-term incentive plan: 750,000 (approximately 0.9% of total shares outstanding).
- Total number of Toromont shares that can be issued to insiders in any one-year period or that are issuable to insiders at any time under the long-term incentive plan, together with any other securities-based compensation arrangement: 10% of total shares outstanding.

Making changes to the plan

The Board can deduct withholding taxes and make changes to the long-term incentive plan that are administrative or housekeeping in nature without shareholder approval. Examples of the types of changes to the long-term incentive plan that the Board is entitled to make without shareholder approval include:

- amendments to ensure continuing compliance of the plan with applicable law
- amendments related to the administration of the plan or to eliminate any ambiguity or correct any provisions that are incorrect or incompatible with any other provision of the plan
- amendments to ensure awards qualify for favourable treatment under applicable tax laws
- amendments to change the class of participants eligible to participate in the plan (except as noted below)
- amendments to impose restrictions on the sale, transfer or other disposal of shares by participants.

The Board needs shareholder approval to make any of the following changes to the long-term incentive plan:

- increase the number of shares available for issue under the plan
- change certain amendment provisions of the plan
- allow the grant of PSUs, EDSUs or RSUs to a non-executive director
- allow awards to be transferred or assigned.

Other plan terms

- The treatment of awards under the plan varies upon a participant ceasing to be an employee of the company, depending on the scenario giving rise to such cessation. RSUs, PSUS and EDSUs are automatically forfeited if an employee is terminated for cause, whereas some or all of the RSUs, PSUS and EDSUs may continue to vest and pay out if employment ceases due to death, disability, retirement or upon a change of control of the company. All DSUs vest as described on page 44.
- Awards are personal to each participant and may not be assigned or transferred other than for normal settlement purposes.
- The plan will remain in effect until it is terminated by the Board.
- In 2024, we began awarding options under the long-term incentive plan and closed the existing option plan to new option grants.

Retirement plans

Our defined contribution plan provides eligible employees with retirement benefits after they retire. We also offer a supplemental employee retirement plan for certain senior managers. The named executives participate in both plans.

Our normal contribution under the defined contribution plan is 10% of the supplemental plan participant's base salary, and 10% of their target bonus. The participant contributes 5% of his or her base salary until the maximum contribution is reached. Employer contributions vest after two years of membership in the supplemental plan.

We introduced the supplemental employee retirement plan in 2005 for normal employer contributions to the defined contribution plan that exceed the restrictions imposed by the Income Tax Act (Canada) in any given year. Interest income is credited to each individual's supplementary account at the end of each fiscal year, based on a rate of (a) the prior year's annual rate of increase in the consumer price index plus 4% or (b) 9% (whichever is lower), multiplied by the beginning account balance for the year. As the annual rate of increase in the consumer price index in the 2024 fiscal year was 3.9%, a rate of 7.9% was applied to the account balance for 2024.

Our total cost for the supplemental plan in 2024 was $1,117,543. The accrued liability under the supplemental plan was $6,071,939 as at December 31, 2024.

Defined contribution plan and supplemental plan table

The table below shows the retirement benefits for each named executive at the end of 2024.

Miles Gregg	$1,398,987	$108,126	$180,111	$1,687,224

Defined benefit plan

None of the named executives for 2024 were members of the defined benefit plan. The plan, which was acquired by Toromont through a predecessor business in 2017, is non-contributory, and provides eligible employees with retirement benefits after they retire. Members receive, at retirement age of 63, an annual pension that is equal to the product of 2% of their final average earnings and years of credited service. Early retirement is permitted with reduced pension starting from age 53. For valuation method and significant assumptions, please refer to note 19 of the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2024, which can be found on our website at www.toromont.com.

Termination and change of control provisions

We do not have a formal severance policy, or employment or other agreements that provide for payments to executives if their employment is terminated. We do, however, have change of control agreements with the named executives (with the exception of Mr. Couture and Mr. Gregg) that provide for payments if employment is terminated under a change of control.

The table below is a summary of the terms under our current compensation plans if an executive stops working at Toromont. Turn to page 55 for a description of the effect of a termination of employment or change of control on awards granted under the long-term incentive plan.

Benefits under the supplemental employee retirement benefits plan are forfeited if a participant discloses confidential information, or competes with a Toromont business, acts as a consultant to a firm that competes with us, or engages in any other activity that is prejudicial to our interests, without our prior consent.

About termination of employment under a change of control

We have a change of control agreement with our corporate officers, including each named executive (with the exception of Mr. Couture and Mr. Gregg). The agreements have five-year terms and are renewable.

The agreements are double trigger, where amounts are payable if there is a change of control of Toromont and employment is terminated in certain circumstances:

- there is a change of control of Toromont and the executive's employment is terminated within three years other than for just cause or for retirement, disability or death or the executive terminates their employment for good reason, or
- it can be demonstrated that prior to the change of control, the termination of employment was at the request of a third party who had taken steps reasonably calculated to effect or in anticipation of a change of control.

How we define change of control

There is a change of control if:

- an individual or group acquires Toromont securities or associated rights that attach voting rights sufficient to cast more than 35% of the votes to elect Toromont directors
- the incumbent directors no longer constitute a majority of the Toromont Board
- Toromont shareholders approve a transaction where the shareholders immediately before the transaction do not immediately after completion of the transaction hold shares entitling them to cast more than 50% of the votes attached to shares in the capital of the continuing corporation to elect directors of that corporation, or
- a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Toromont or a sale, lease or other disposition of all or substantially all of our assets (other than to a subsidiary, or when the action does not result in a change in the ultimate shareholders of Toromont or the subsidiary).

Under the agreements, executives are entitled to an amount equal to compensation earned but not paid before the termination date plus two times the average total annual compensation (which includes bonus and benefits) for the previous 24 months. The executive will also be entitled to the pension benefits they would have been entitled to if employment had continued until normal retirement, death or two years following the date of termination (whichever is earlier). All unvested options vest automatically and are exercisable for 90 days after the termination. Under the terms of the long-term incentive plan, awards automatically vest and are paid out on termination. The PSU performance multiplier to calculate actual payout will be determined by the Human Resources and Health and Safety Committee but will not be less than one.

Just cause for dismissal arises if there is willful failure to perform duties, willful engagement in any act that is injurious to Toromont, or willful engagement in certain illegal acts.

Good reason arises if we:

- materially reduce or modify the executive's position, responsibilities or authority, or the executive is effectively prevented from carrying out duties
- reduce any form of compensation to the executive, adversely change the basis for determining the compensation or fail to increase their compensation in a manner consistent with our policies prior to a control change
- fail to continue any benefits, bonus, compensation plan, option plan or other purchase plan, life insurance, disability plan, pension plan or retirement plan that the executive is participating in or entitled to participate in prior to the control change, or fail to take action or take action that adversely affects these rights
- relocate the executive from the location of employment prior to the control change
- take action to deprive the executive of any material fringe or other benefit or entitlement enjoyed before the control change, or
- breach the change of control agreements.

Disability means an executive's failure to substantially perform his or her duties on a full-time basis for six months out of any 18-month period where the inability is a result of a physical or mental illness or disability.

The table below shows the estimated incremental amount of compensation that would be paid to each named executive according to their change of control agreement if employment had been terminated on December 31, 2024.

	Salary, bonus and benefits ¹	Pension benefits	Value of unvested in-the-money options	Value of unvested PSUs ²	Total
Michael McMillan	$3,181,796	$377,438	$577,969	$1,223,116	$5,360,319
John Doolittle	$2,075,370	$190,400	-	$273,876	$2,539,646

² Includes EDSUs received in lieu of PSUs. For units where the performance period is not complete, we assumed a performance multiplier of 1. We used a performance multiplier of 1.4 for the 2022 PSU and EDSU grants because the performance period for these units is complete and the performance factor has been determined.

The amounts assume a share price of $113.64, the closing price of a Toromont share on the TSX on December 31, 2024. Actual amounts that would be paid to a named executive if there is a change of control may be different based on the timing of the trigger event.

The executive is entitled to payment from us within ten days of the termination (for salary, bonus and benefits plan).

If employment is terminated during a change of control because of retirement, death or disability, the executive or his or her family is entitled to receive the benefits that would have been provided by Toromont before the change of control.
